

Register No.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

ML 896

LL.M. DEGREE (SEMESTER) EXAMINATIONS,
JANUARY 2023.

(For the candidates admitted from 2017-2018 onwards)

First Year – First Semester

(Common to all branches)

PAPER II : INDIAN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW – THE NEW CHALLENGES	CODE :	PFJ
--	---------------	------------

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 60 marks

PART A — (3 × 12 = 36 marks)

Answer THREE of the following.

1. “The Constitution of India does not guarantee the territorial integrity of any States of the Union” – Discuss.
2. “Democracy and Federalism are the essential features of the Indian Constitution and are parts of its basic structure” – Elucidate.
3. Examine Right to Education under the Indian Constitution with reference to Brain drain by Foreign Education Market.
4. Explain the impact of the development of Science and Technology on Empowerment of Women.
5. Critically analyse the interstate disputes on resources.

PART B — (4 × 6 = 24 marks)

Answer FOUR of the following in about 250 words each.

6. Write a note on federal comity.
7. Examine the Centre’s responsibility towards internal disturbance within the states.

[P.T.O.]

8. Discuss Compensatory Jurisprudence evolved by the Supreme Court.
 9. Critically examine the need for grass-roots level governance in India.
 10. Explain the rights of Minorities to establish and administer educational institutions.
 11. Examine Judicial activism and Judicial restraint.
-